

Beyond the Belief in Astrology

We don't believe in ....., as it is unnatural to do that, but the way things are going now, it is not very difficult to predict that this world has now grown old. The prophecies before the Day of Judgment as told by our Prophet (SAW), are being fulfilled day by day. We can't say for sure, that which one of the Wars, that began at the end of 20th century and at the beginning of 21st century, will prove to be the Armageddon, however, these series of wars are not seeming to stop in the near future. Iraq is being ablated with blood consistently. The everyday death toll is in hundreds. Then several other beheaded and mutilated dead bodies are found on daily basis, which might have been killed during the darkness of the nights, and hence, remain unnoticed. Afghanistan is presenting a strange scenario. The latest technology is frustrated and screaming that hungry, illiterate, barbarian, Taliban, who are equipped with 19th century weapons, have made life difficult for it, and the World's Supreme Power is now requesting their mental, intellectual and social slaves to 'do more' to crush these un-armed soldiers. We are your rulers, you are living on our aid, you are in power because of us, win this war for us, otherwise, we will deprive you of your leadership, and 'we will bomb you to the stone-age'. In our opinion, how ignorant is this supreme power! Those living in stones and mountains are the one who are taming the latest technology. If the home-resident Muslims get to know of the Belief and passion these mountain-resident Talibans have, the world with all its vastness will be shrunked in front of them. Anyhow, the human blood is being shed in Afghanistan as well, but Bush and company are impatiently eager to gain further control on world's resources, and to spread their span of power to the entire Globe. Hence, this blood-thirsty daemon is now advancing towards Iran. The air-craft carriers have been sent to the Persian-gulf. As, this news is well spread now, that at the moment, America will not advance its ground troops towards Iran, but it is almost established that it will use air-strikes to bombard the nuclear facilities in Iran.

On the other side, Israel is fully trying to exploit this situation. It has already started to improvise by continuing the digging around Al-Aqsa Mosque and by demolishing its two side-rooms. By doing this, they are trying to test the reaction of Muslims – testing their nerves. The rebuilding of the Solomon's Temple after demolishing the Al-Aqsa Mosque is their declared mission, but still, Muslims instead of uniting with each other are now indulged in mutual enmities. Iran does not hold a good view about Saudi-Arabia, and Saudi-Arabia is concerned about Iran's military power. Kuwait and Qatar are America's military bases. Jordan is sitting in the lap of America. After Egypt-Israel conflict in 1973, Anwar Sadaat had already handed over the countries defense to America, and now, Hossani Mubarak has taken to it to its extreme. We have observed that if even a cat like weak animal is surrounded in danger, and it couldn't find any escape, does not hesitate to attack even the strongest opponent. Muslim Ummah is now also surrounded by such butchers who have sharp knives in their hands, ferocious look in their eyes, and mercilessness in their hearts. Their tongues have now tasted the Muslim Blood, hence now, it is really silly to expect any mercy from them.

Tipu Sultan and Jaafer both died but the latter became an abuse whereas the former is respected even by his enemies. Muslims, should ponder that this leadership, at last, will be over. Shah-e- Iran who celebrated the 2500th Kingship didn't get even two meter land for his dead body in his homeland. But this is also an unavoidable reality, that leaders won't change until people change themselves. Prophet (SAW) said: 'Aaamal-u-kum Ummal-u-kum': 'Your deeds will be made rulers over you'. The beginning will be from individuals. Each and every member of Muslim Ummah will first have to change Himself, then this will lead to the establishment of Islamic society, and then finally, to the 'Islamic State'. The global system of Caliphate won't descend from heavens; it won't be achieved until an 'Islamic Caliphate System' is established on any one of the Muslim nations. In short, if this individual-social-state model is not followed to establish 'The Islamic caliphate', Bush and company; who are, at the moment, the Symbols of Satanic Forces, and the Zionist-Jews who are playing the roles of Satan's Agents in the world, will continue their mission to eradicate the Muslims from the face of the Earth. Anyhow, the need is not to be disappointed, but to re-build our determination. Allah (SWT) has mentioned in the Quran, that many a time it happened that a small group over-took a large group. If poverty-stricken and armless Taliban can prove to be a hot potato for America, then the remaining Muslim Ummah, if manage to make Quran their 'Imaam' and start following the 'Sunnah' of Prophet Muhammad (SAW), can change the destiny of Stars. The need of the day is that we start following the straight Path 'Siraat-e-Mustaqeem', which is shown to us by Allah (SWT), and which was practically presented to us by the Prophet Muhammad (SAW).
