From the Qur'an:

"Indeed, those who like that immorality should be spread [or publicized] among those who have believed will have a painful punishment in this world and the Hereafter. And Allah knows and you do not know."

(Surah An-Nur: Verse 19)

"O you who have believed, do not follow the footsteps of Satan. And whoever follows the footsteps of Satan - indeed, he enjoins immorality and wrongdoing. And if not for the favor of Allah upon you and His mercy, not one of you would have been pure, ever, but Allah purifies whom He wills, and Allah is Hearing and Knowing."

(Surah An-Nur: Verse 21)

Selected Hadith:

Abu Hurairah (RA) said: The Messenger of Allah (SAAW) said, "There are two types of people who will be punished in Hell and whom I have not seen: men having whips like the tails of cows and they will be beating people with them, and, women who will be dressed but appear to be naked, inviting to evil; and they themselves will be inclined to it. Their heads will appear like the humps of the Bactrian camel inclined to one side. They will not enter Jannah and they will not smell its fragrance which is perceptible from such and such a distance."

(Sahih Muslim)

All praise is due to Allah (SWT), and peace & blessing on his noble Messengers (AS), in particular, on the last of them all the blessed Prophet Muhammad (SAAW).

Beware! The latest wave of misplaced feminist influence is about to hit our country in the month of March 2020 – yet again. The modern feminist is a peculiar creature and her comrades are a strange sub-strata of Millennial and Generation X women and men with an odd inferiority complex. They are obsessed with picking at the corpse of 'women's lib', trying to draw fresh blood, and are often seen lurking around, attempting to sniff out sexism in every nook and cranny. Theirs is an ideology based not on equality, equitability or even 'rights', but misplaced victimhood.

According to the standard feminist, the most insidious issues facing women today are, 'manspreading', 'mansplaining', and 'micro-aggressions'. Terms cooked up to keep their follower feminists in business as they steadily run out of things to complain about. In short, the feminists are perpetually miserable, and seek to make other women as brutally unhappy as they are.

It has become amply evident by now to most rational humans that feminists 'enjoy' convenient double-standards. However, the very worst of these is, ironically, a strange form of misogyny, and is starkly revealed in their treatment of conservative and traditionalist Muslim women. In other words, feminists insist they want more female voices in the mainstream... as long as they agree with them. Worse still, they attempt to justify such despicable behavior by babbling, 'So, does the fact that we are feminists mean that we have to support all women?' The answer ought to be – YES – if a key point in the feminist's manifesto and whining-point is 'the push' to give all women a voice. But oddly enough, feminist engagements with conservative and traditionalist Muslim women never seem to move beyond personal attacks. Why? Because character assassination is the last bastion of the desperate when they are out of intellectual ammunition. It is one thing to mob and shout slogans (some of which would be X-rated in even the most free Western nations), but an entirely different challenge to engage in any sort of intellectual debate embedded in reason. To be honest, feminists find it impossible to prove or assert that Islam looks down upon women and consequently, their claim that Muslim women are an oppressed class is patently absurd. In the harsh light of reality, feminists actually have no argument.

Let's now glance at some really interesting statistics, from the 'Land of the Free' – USA itself. According to the National Domestic Violence Hotline, six million American women experience a serious assault by a partner during an average 12-month period. On the average, more than six women are murdered by their husbands and boyfriends every day . . . that is more than 18,000 women battered to death since 9/11. Some might say that is a shocking indictment on such a 'civilized society', but the reality is that one out of three women around the world, especially in the 'civilized West' has been beaten, coerced into sex or otherwise abused during her lifetime. Violence against women transcends religion, wealth, class, skin color and culture, yet the feminist points her finger at Islam and Muslims only. Such biased attitude is probably due to indoctrination, the demand of the paymaster, the urge to be in the limelight, or a combination of all.

The fact of the matter is that Western women are still treated as commodities, where sexual slavery is on the rise, disguised under marketing euphemisms, where women's' bodies are traded throughout the advertising world. As mentioned before, this is a society where rape, sexual assault, and violence on women is commonplace, a society where trust and equitability between men and women is an illusion, a society where a women's' power or influence is usually only related to her outwardly appearance. It was true in medieval Europe and true in the modern West of today. What a shame! However, what the feminist forgets is history... Before Islam came on the scene, women were treated as inferior beings.

We believe that this charade of feminists demonizing Islamic moral and social norms and values is part of a sinister plan and with all the Western think tanks working on various aspects of the lives of Muslims, their core beliefs and value sets, all in order to figure out new ways to wound Islam and the Muslim Ummah, it becomes extremely difficult to pick one and make an in-depth analysis of the damage being done by it. We have, however, chosen a U.S. think tank named Pew Research Center (a.k.a. PEW) for our current discourse. It has to be noted that PEW is not an acronym. It takes its name from the Pew family, an American libertarian and pro-feminist clan that started its work in the 1940's as a "nonpartisan fact tank that informs the public about the issues, attitudes and trends shaping America and the world. It conducts public opinion polling, demographic research, media content analysis and other empirical social science research." There is more to the stated goals of PEW, however, as it provides analysis and strategic solutions to the West regarding the cultural and moral values of the Muslims in its reports and paves the way for the West to chalk-out plans in order to sabotage the social fabric of the Muslim Society, at its weakest. At present, that happens to be the unit of 'family' and the simultaneous indoctrination of ideals such as 'liberalism', 'secularism' and 'feminism' to try and break it apart.

The website of Pew Research Center and its affiliate institutes gives a clear picture of the agenda of this "non-partisan" fact tank. Almost all research and reports published or posted on the internet are related to the moral and cultural values of Muslims, with not a single research or report about the cultural norms of Christians, Jews or any other religious group.

Just take the example of a report published in 2014 by PEW entitled "The Birthplace of the Arab Spring: Values and Perceptions of Tunisians and A Comparative Assessment of Egyptian, Iraqi, Lebanese, Pakistani, Saudi, Tunisian, and Turkish Publics". The report is a partisan analysis and evaluation of the cultural norms and acceptances of 'the most appropriate dress code for women' as seen in the countries stated above. While most of the report consist of gibberish, the most important fact highlighted is that the publics of these countries see 'more progressive women' as the 'driving force for development and change'. The report ties this to the 'positive effects' of the so-called Arab Spring. The most astonishing factor of the report is the criterion upon which the sample size has been selected for the so-called poll (or research), where not more than 4000 persons are asked about their opinion on the issue in countries that have populations in hundreds of millions. In simple words, the selected 4000 person are considered to be 'representative' of the many hundreds of millions that live in these countries and the findings are presented as "accurate results"! This statistical dishonesty goes unnoticed because the name "PEW" is supposedly well respected and considered an authority on social research. We have provided a brief synopsis of the Pew research on this issue in order for our readers to understand the intellectual dishonesty been perpetrated by these 'think-tanks'. We also ask of our readers to reflect on the sheer nostalgia that these so-called non-partisan 'fact tanks' have against the dress code for women prescribed by Islam, simply by considering on the names assigned to each group in the 'research'. (Note: The report can be found on the website <https://www.pewresearch.org/>)

Coming back to the conservative and traditionalist Muslim women of Pakistan and the target being painted on the Islamic moral and social fabrics, yet again, in March 2020; while the seed of engineering the Islamic values of our society to fit Western standards was sown decades ago, massive acceleration of this iNGO-led and secular/liberal sponsored 'feminist' agenda in our society is visible today more than ever before. The conservative and traditionalist Muslim women of Pakistan (who outnumber the 'feminists' by more than a million to one) are being targeted through decadence in culture and society promoted by the media, the shenanigans in educational institutions and purpose-specific-funded NGOs, with the handful of elitist 'feminist' women and men, who are privileged enough themselves, used as foot soldiers for this sinister cause.

Finally, the message, for all mankind, by the Creator (SWT) of the Heavens and Earth is simple and sufficiently clear:

"O mankind, eat from whatever is on earth [that is] lawful and good and do NOT follow the footsteps of Satan. Indeed, he is to you a clear enemy. He only orders you to EVIL and IMMORALITY and to say about Allah what you do not know."

(Translation: Surah al-Baqarah, Verses 168-169)

and

"Indeed, those who like that immorality should be spread [or publicized] among those who have believed will have a painful punishment in this world and the Hereafter. And Allah knows and you do not know."

(Translation: Surah an-Nur, Verse 19)

May Allah (SWT) give us the eyes and hearts to see through the deceptions of evil, reject the devious narratives of feminists on the basis of rational thought gifted divinely to us all, sincerely follow the commandments given by Him (SWT) and His Messenger (SAAW) and bless us all with the capacity to discern the Truth from falsehood.

Aameen!

Press Releases issued by Tanzeem-e-Islami

Date: 07 February 2020

Lahore (PR): “The construction of ‘Ram Mandir’ at the site of ‘Babri Masjid’ is tantamount to the worst form of enmity against Islam.”

The Ameer of Tanzeem-e-Islami, Hafiz Aakif Saeed, has lamented in a statement that the responsibility of constructing ‘Ram Mandir’ at the site of ‘Babri Masjid’ has been given to an extremist Hindu Trust, organized by the Modi government. According to the Modi regime, this action is being taken ‘in light of the directions’ given by the Supreme Court of India. This fanatical attitude reflects the extremist ideology of BJP and RSS, which is firmly rooted in bitter enmity against Islam, the Ameer remarked. He added that the sole purpose of such actions is to hurt the emotions of Muslims. The Ameer noted that the oppression being perpetrated by India against the Muslims of Occupied Kashmir and the persecution of Muslims being done by the Indian government in guise of the Citizenship Law, have unveiled the real cruel and spiteful face of India in front of the entire world.

The Ameer expressed deep concern and condemnation on the threats being given to Pakistan by the Indian political leaders and the continuous violations of the Line of Control (LoC) and incidents of unprovoked cross-border firing by the Indian military, in which many Jawans of the Pakistan Army as well as innocent civilians have been martyred. He remarked that there is a clear and present danger that India would try to harm Pakistan, either under the pretext of a false-flag attack or by direct military aggression and adventurism against our country, the purpose of which may be to ‘satisfy’ the extremist Hindu vote bank of BJP. The Ameer warned that any such military misadventure on the part of India to attack Pakistan would be a grave mistake of the Modi regime. The Pakistan Army is well-equipped and capable of responding vigorously to any kind of military aggression by India, while the entire nation would stand shoulder to shoulder with the Armed Forces of Pakistan, if attacked by India. The Ameer asserted that during these foreboding times, it is necessary for Pakistan to revert to the basis of its creation and fulfill the promises made at the time of our Independence by making our country a genuine Islamic Welfare State on the shining and pristine principles set forth by the Khilafat-e-Rashida. He concluded by stating that only then would it be possible to firmly defend our Ideological and geographical boundaries.

Date: 31 January 2020

Lahore (PR): “Trump’s ‘Middle East peace plan’ is, in reality, the practical manifestation of Zionist extremism against Palestinian Muslims.”

This was said by the Ameer of Tanzeem-e-Islami, Hafiz Aakif Saeed, in a statement. The Ameer remarked that the ‘Peace Plan’ announced by the US President Donald Trump in the White House on 28 January 2020, in the company of the Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu, is NOT a ‘Deal of the Century’, instead it is a sinister and evil conspiracy to further oppress, assault and brutalize the Palestinian Muslims. The said plan has declared Jerusalem as the ‘undivided capital’ of the Jewish state of Israel, told the Muslims to ‘forget’ about their (glorious) past regarding the Holy Land and meekly accept the ‘absolute sovereignty’ of Israel over all their affairs, or else ‘leave the land’. The Ameer criticized that there is no precedence in the modern history of nations of such a callous act of blatantly trampling all international and moral laws. He lamented the criminal silence of Muslim rulers, particularly those of the Arab world, regarding this matter.

While commenting on commemorating 5 February as the Day of pledging loyalty with Kashmir (Kashmir Day), the Ameer said that the fact of the matter is that India as a whole has become similar to Indian Occupied Kashmir for the Indian Muslims too, as a consequence of the Citizenship (amendment) Law passed by the extremist Modi regime in the Indian Parliament. As a result, India as a whole, and not just Indian Occupied Kashmir, has become a prison for Muslims. The Ameer said that, in fact, the racist and bigoted government of BJP wants to make the lives of Indian Muslims so miserable that it becomes utterly impossible for them to stay in India any longer. He added that it appeared as if the fascist BJP government was practically working towards materially realizing its slogan, “There are (only) two abodes for Muslims; Pakistan or the Graveyard!” The Ameer said that it is imperative for us to take the foul mouthing of PM Modi seriously, who has said in a recent statement that India can overpower Pakistan within ten days, thus, Pakistan ought to remain vigilant regarding the nefarious future designs of India viz. our country. The Ameer concluded by asserting that while it was undeniably essential and the need of the hour to safeguard and fortify our geographical borders, our government must never forget that securing and protecting the geographical boundaries of our country is not only difficult but almost impossible without safeguarding the Ideological boundaries of Pakistan.
