From the Qur'an:

"And of the people are some who say, "We believe in Allah and the Last Day," but they are not believers."

"They [think to] deceive Allah and those who believe, but they deceive not except themselves and perceive [it] not."

"In their hearts is disease, so Allah has increased their disease; and for them is a painful punishment because they [habitually] used to lie."

"And when it is said to them, "Do not cause corruption on the earth," they say, "We are but reformers."

"Unquestionably, it is they who are the corrupters, but they perceive [it] not."

(Surah Al-Baqarah, Verses 8 – 12)

Selected Hadith:

Allah's Messenger (SAAW) said, "A Muslim is a brother of another Muslim, so he should not oppress him, nor should he hand him over to an oppressor. Whoever fulfilled the needs of his brother, Allah will fulfill his needs; whoever brought his (Muslim) brother out of a discomfort, Allah will bring him out of the discomforts of the Day of Resurrection, and whoever screened a Muslim, Allah will screen him on the Day of Resurrection."

(Sahih Bukhari)

All praise is due to Allah (SWT), and peace & blessing on his noble Messengers (AS), in particular, on the last of them all the blessed Prophet Muhammad (SAAW).

Imagine, you are living in a world that you are told is a democracy – and you may even believe it – but in fact, your life and fate is in the hands of a few ultra-rich, ultra-powerful and ultra-inhuman oligarchs. They may be called Deep State, or simply the Beast, or anything else obscure or untraceable – it does not matter. They are less than the 0.0001%.

For lack of a better expression, let us call them for now "obscure individuals".

These obscure individuals who pretend running our world have never been elected. We do not need to name them. You will figure out who they are, and why they are famous, and some of them totally invisible. They have created structures, or organisms without any legal format. They are fully out of international legality. They are a forefront for the bigger Beast that we know as the "Illegal Zionist State". But they have the same objective: A New or One World Order (NWO, or OWO).

These obscure individuals are running, for example, The World Economic Forum (WEF – representing Big Industry, Big Finance and Big Fame), the Group of 7 – G7, the Group of 20 – G20 (the leaders of the "economically strongest" nations). There are also some other entities, called the Bilderberg Society, the Council on Foreign Relations (CFR), Chatham House and more.

The members of all of them are overlapping. Even this expanded forefront combined represents less than 0.001%. They all have superimposed themselves over sovereign national elected and constitutional governments, and over THE multinational world body, the United Nations, the UN.

In fact, they have coopted the UN to do their bidding. UN Director Generals, as well as the DGs of the multiple UN-suborganizations, are chosen mostly by the US, with the consenting nod of their European vassals – according to the candidate's political and psychological profile. If his or her 'performance' as head of the UN or head of one of the UN suborganizations fails, his or her days are counted. Coopted or created by the Beast(s) are also, the European Union, the Bretton Woods Organizations, World Bank and IMF, as well as the World Trade Organization (WTO) – and – make no mistake – the International Criminal Court (ICC) in The Hague. It has no teeth. Just to make sure the law is always on the side of the lawless.

In addition to the key international financial institutions, WB and IMF, there are the so-called regional development banks and similar financial institutions, keeping the countries of their respective regions in check.

In the end, it is financial or debt-economy that controls everything. Western neoliberal banditry has created a system, where political disobedience can be punished by economic oppression or outright theft of national assets in international territories. The system's common denominator is the (still) omnipresent US-dollar.

The supremacy of these obscure unelected individuals becomes ever more exposed. We, the People consider it "normal" that they call the shots, not what we call – or once were proud of calling, our sovereign nations and sovereignly elected governments. They have become a herd of obedient sheep. The Beast has gradually and quietly taken over. We have not noticed. When you realize that you have nothing left, that your freedom, your civil and human rights are gone, by then it's too late. Case in point is the US Patriot Act. It was prepared way before 9/11. Once 9/11 "happened", the Patriot Legislation was whizzed through Congress in no time – for the people's future protection – people called for it for fear – and – bingo, the Patriot Act took about 90% of the American population's freedom and civil rights away. For good.

We have become enslaved to the Beast. The Beast calls the shots on boom or bust of our economies, on who should be shackled by debt, when and where a pandemic should break out, and on the conditions of surviving the pandemic, for example, social confinement.

And to top it all off – the most ‘potent’ instrument the Beast uses, very cleverly, is a huge but invisible monster, called FEAR. That keeps us off the street, off reunions with our friends, and off our social and religious practices.

Soon the Beast will decide who will live and who will die, literally – if we let it. This may be not far away. Take the latest case of blatant imposture. Conveniently, after the first wave of Covid-19 had passed, at least in the Global North, where the major world decisions are made, in early June 2020, the unelected WEF Chairman, Klaus Schwab, announced “The Great Reset”. Taking advantage of the economic collapse – the crisis shock, as in “The Shock Doctrine” – Mr. Schwab, one of the Beast’s frontrunners, announces openly what the WEF will discuss and decide for the world-to-come in their next Davos Forum in January 2021. It entails taking advantage of the staggering impact of the coronavirus to advance a very specific agenda. Notably enough, that agenda dovetails perfectly with another specific agenda, namely the 2015 UN Agenda 2030. The irony of the world’s leading big business forum, the one that has advanced the corporate globalization agenda since the 1990s, now embracing what they call sustainable development, is huge. That gives us a hint that this agenda is not quite about what WEF and partners claim.

It will opportunely focus on the protection of what’s left of Mother Earth; obviously at the center will be man-made CO2-based “Global Warming”. The instrument for that protection of nature and humankind will be the UN Agenda 2030 – which equals the UN Sustainable Development Goals (SDG). It will focus on how to rebuild the willfully destroyed global economy, while respecting the (“green”) principles of the 17 SDGs.

Mind you, it’s all connected. There are no coincidences. The infamous Agenda 2021 which coincides with and complements the so-called (UN) Agenda 2030, will be duly inaugurated by the WEF’s official declaration of The Great Reset, in January 2021. Planned for decades, with one of the visible events being the 2010 Rockefeller Report with its “Lockstep Scenario” and a global economy in ruins.

The Beast’s nefarious plan to implement what’s really behind the UN Agenda 2030 is the little heard-of Agenda ID2020. It has been created and funded by the vaccination guru Bill Gates, and so has GAVI (Global Alliance for Vaccines and Immunizations), the association of Big Pharma – involved in creating the corona vaccines, and which funds along with the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation (BMGF) a major proportion of WHO’s budget.

The Great Reset, as announced by WEF’s Klaus Schwab, is supposedly implemented by Agenda ID2020. It is more than meets the eye. Agenda ID2020 is even anchored in the SDGs, as SDG 16.9 “by 2030 provide legal [digital] identity for all, including free birth registration”. This fits perfectly into the overall goal of SDG 16: “Promote peaceful and inclusive societies for sustainable development, provide access to justice for all and build effective, accountable and inclusive institutions at all levels.”

The ruling elite used the lockdown as an instrument to carry out this agenda. Its implementation would naturally face massive protests, organized and funded by the Beast. They may not be peaceful – and may not be planned as being peaceful. Because to control the population in the US and in Europe, where most of the civil unrest would be expected, a total militarization of the people is required. This is well under preparation. So is that of the rest of the world, including the developing and poor countries.

In a nutshell, the notions of a one world government stated above all have one goal in common – The rule of an elite (the Beast) in order to gain power, control and riches of the entire planet at the expense of the oppression and injustice done to a vast majority of the “common people” inhabiting the world.

Nevertheless, there is another format of a one world government – the one presented by Islam. In fact, it would be an absolute misnomer to call the idea presented by Islam as one of a “one world government”. Though Arabian in origin, Islam is global in moral and spiritual appeal and its ambition to unite the entire human family across the globe under Allah’s (SWT) Supremacy is fundamental. Islam is unique in its decision and capacity to confront, rather than accommodate, the challenges of secular and liberal belief. Islam considers the entire world as the dominion of The Creator – Allah (SWT) – and thus considers human beings as His (SWT) representatives on planet earth. Consequently, the Deen of Islam requires that the law and governance of Allah (SWT) be established on the entire globe by His (SWT) representatives, so that the earth could be filled with individual, social and collective Justice, based on the Deen’s pristine edicts.

The fundamental point of departure, as mentioned earlier, in the Islamic worldview from the current one is that while all present formulas for establishing a global government revolve around the authority of a few (the Beast) in order to subjugate the rest, Islam sees it as the authority of Allah (SWT) established by His (SWT) representatives on earth in order to provide equality, justice and equal opportunity for all of mankind to be introduced to the Creator (SWT) and pave the way for their submission to Him (SWT) alone. That system was witnessed firsthand by the people of the Arabian Peninsula, in its purest form, during the period of the rightly guided Caliphs. That system was referred to as Khilafah (Caliphate), where the rights of everyone were protected and even the most powerful of the people (Caliphs) were subject to the same law as the least powerful ones (the masses).

It is our considered opinion that justice and fairness for every single person living in the world can only be guaranteed by the System of Social Justice given by Islam and by establishing it in its purest form. All other forms of governance have malice built-in and are meant to be implemented for the benefit of a select few at the expense of the subservience to the elite of the majority.

The Beast can be defeated... The Beast must be defeated...

May Allah (SWT) give the will and the courage to the Muslim Ummah of today to present a model of that pure form of governance for the world to witness in a sustainable manner in a sizable region.

Palestinians Have No Choice but to Resist in Any Way, Shape or Form Annexation

To annex or not annex? This is the question bugging Israeli, Palestinian and international political figures since Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu missed his July 1 deadline for beginning the process of formally annexing portions of the occupied West Bank. According to Netanyahu ally Ofir Akunis, Israeli officials are still working out the details of the annexation with the US Trump administration, but he expects this will take place during this month.

In an interview with Italian daily "It Fatto Quotidiano", former Israeli Knesset speaker and peace activist Avraham Burg said, however, Donald Trump halted the annexation plan since "he doesn't have time to help Netanyahu in implementing the annexation of the West Bank and Jordan Valley." Asked when he thought implementation might go ahead, Burg replied it is "very difficult, if not impossible, to set expectations to the annexation, because there is no transparency in this plan, no one knows its details". Burg made his name as a founder of Peace Now following Israel's 1982 war on Lebanon and has since joined efforts to boycott goods and produce from Israel's West Bank colonies. In 2015 he joined the leftist joint Arab-Jewish Hadash Party.

Having green-lighted Netanyahu's intention to annex Israel's West Bank colonies and the Jordan Valley, 30 per cent of the territory, Trump could very well be "too busy" campaigning for reelection to back up his friend in a project which has been vehemently condemned as illegal by the UN, the European Union, the Arabs, the Palestinians, the remaining four permanent members of the Security Council, and other members of the international community.

Although he claims to be running on a "law-and-order" platform, Trump is not impressed by the fact that the West Bank is regarded by international law and the Fourth Geneva Convention as "occupied territory" and deems Israeli colonization illegal.

Netanyahu's coalition partner, Defence Minister Benny Gantz, who is less keen on annexation, argues it should wait until Israel contains Covid-19 cases which have spiked just as the country was beginning to ease restrictions. Gantz, in particular, should be concerned if annexation precipitates widespread Palestinian protests and violent resistance. It will be his job to contain and crack down.

Since Palestinian President Mahmoud Abbas' election in 2005, Israel has been largely free of the sort of attacks that took place during the Second Intifada due to security coordination between the Palestinian intelligence agencies and police and their Israeli counterparts. However, Abbas has cut contacts with Israel and halted security cooperation since Netanyahu returned to power and pledged to annex areas allocated to Israel in Trump's "Deal of the Century" which has been roundly rejected of all and sundry.

Abbas has now taken a major step further. Along with Hamas' leaders, he has agreed to support a common Fateh-Hamas Palestinian resistance campaign which could involve violence if and when Israel annexes West Bank territory. This campaign was announced last week by Jibril Rajoub, head of Fateh's central committee, and Saleh Al Arouri, West Bank chief of Hamas. Both men have careers in 'militancy' and served long terms in Israeli prisons.

Rajoub and Arouri have vowed to "speak in a single voice". Rajoub said they would launch "popular resistance in which everyone participates" and "put in place all necessary measures to ensure national unity". He announced, "We will not raise a white flag, we will not give up. All the options are open if the Israelis start the annexation and slam the door on the two-State solution." He did not rule out a Third Intifada to end the occupation and "remove annexation from the table".

Arouri said the rival movements have set aside "issues on which we differ. We and Fateh and all the Palestinian factions are facing an existential threat, and we must work together". Hamas, he said will use "all forms of struggle and resistance against the annexation project". He rightly pointed out, "Annexing any percentage of the West Bank now means that more will follow... If the occupation ends up controlling the Jordan Valley, Jerusalem and other areas then it will have an appetite for more."

Since both men have made it clear that "all options" are open if Israel goes ahead with annexation, coming together on this issue appears to mark a turning point. Fateh and Hamas have adopted the same stand towards annexation. If Netanyahu goes ahead, Palestinian Authority security agencies would no longer prevent mass protests in the West Bank or hinder Fateh, Hamas and other groups from plotting and staging attacks on Israel and Israelis.

This does not mean that Fateh and Hamas, estranged since Hamas won the 1996 Palestinian legislative election, have reconciled. Cooperation on annexation does not signify reconciliation but simply the need to join forces to counter Israel's formal take-over of all or portions of the West Bank, which will make the emergence of a Palestinian state impossible. Near global opposition to such a move has given Palestinians the right to resist Israel's latest and most consequential existential challenge. Without land they will continue to exist in a limbo, without a state, independence, and full membership in the international community which is open only to states. The Palestinians have no choice but to resist in any way, shape or form they choose. The late Palestinian leader Yasser Arafat always kept "all options" in reserve, knowing full well that Palestinians have very little leverage over Israel and its allies.

Press Releases issued by Tanzeem-e-Islami

Date: 10 July 2020

Lahore (PR): “The decision to make mandatory the ability to read Qur’an with translation for getting a university degree ought to be implemented.”

This was said by the Ameer of Tanzeem-e-Islami, Hafiz Aakif Saeed, in a statement. He said that the decision had been made in a meeting of the Governor of Punjab with the Vice Chancellors of all chartered universities that no student would be awarded a university degree in the future until he/she does not achieve the ability to read the Qur’an with translation on his/her own. He noted that this was a very appreciable decision, however, since then no practical action has been taken for its implementation. He remarked that no one should misconstrue that this would amount to some sort of ‘extra demand’, because this is a basic responsibility of the government, according to article 31 of the constitution. In fact, if the government does not take steps to enable the Muslims of Pakistan, individually and collectively, to order their lives in accordance with the fundamental principles and basic concepts of Islam, then it would be a blatant violation of article 31 of our constitution. The Ameer remarked that it would not be easy to do so until the Muslims of Pakistan achieve the ability to read and grasp the Book of Allah (SWT) on their own without the assistance of a translation done by someone else.

While vehemently condemning and lamenting the callous incident of sexual harassment of teenage girl students by male teacher(s) in a private school of Lahore, the Ameer said that, in fact, such incidents occur as a logical consequence of our betrayal and unwillingness to follow the teachings of Allah (SWT) and His (SWT) Messenger (SAAW). He remarked that Islam commands us to observe ‘Satr and Hijab’ (covering the body according to Islamic Shariah) and ‘Pardah’ (veil/shroud), while declaring mixed gatherings in the society (where segregation of sexes is not observed) as a poison ivy for any society. He said that our educational institutions have, in fact, become ‘business concerns’, where only material economic benefits are considered, instead of being places for the correct upbringing, purification and nurturing of the youth into good human beings, as a result of which incidents and episodes of this shocking kind keep occurring. The Ameer concluded by lamenting that the entire flock appears to have been corrupted and no partial effort for improvement can be successful, therefore, the need of the hour is to usher in a complete and comprehensive Islamic Revolution for the cause.

Date: 03 July 2020

Lahore (PR): “No resources of the government of Pakistan ought to be spent on the construction of the Mandir, at any cost.”

This was said by the Ameer of Tanzeem-e-Islami, Hafiz Aakif Saeed, in a statement. He noted that it was a grave miscalculation on all our behalf by not taking an unyielding stand against the decision made, when an expensive 4-kanal plot in Islamabad was allotted to Hindus for the construction of a Mandir during the time of a previous government, which was used to the fullest extent of getting benefit by the other party and they were even able to get a court order in favor of their allotment, hence getting legal cover. He expressed deep concern on the reported news that the present government is allocating grant for the construction of the Mandir. He said that public pressure must be mobilized to ensure that the present government is not allowed to allocate even a small and petty amount from the public exchequer for the construction of a ‘House of Idols’. He remarked that if the present government goes through with allocating funds for the construction of the Mandir, it will prove that this whole episode is being carried out under the supervision and with the blessing of the present government itself.

While commenting on the picture that went viral on the social media of a 3-year old child crying over the body of his dead (martyred) grandfather on a street in Indian Occupied Kashmir (IoK), the Ameer remarked that, in fact, it appeared that the child is mourning and lamenting the ‘death of humanity’. The UN and all human rights organizations, “Civilized Europe” and the “Champion of Human Rights and Equality” – USA; are all sinisterly silent on this incident. Maybe this silence is due to the fact that the one murdered is a Muslim while the Murderer is a non-Muslim, he lamented, or otherwise the entire world would have been thrown into a frenzy. He noted that one of the reasons for this disgrace and ignominy, and the worthlessness of the blood of Muslims in today’s world is the behavior of the Muslims themselves. Had the Muslim Ummah retained and showed the slightest of integrity and honor, this image alone would have been sufficient to call out India and cut-off all diplomatic and trade ties with the fascist Indian government. He concluded by asserting that until Muslims do not become genuine faithful believers (Momin) and do not implement Islam as a Complete System, the world would, unfortunately, continue its attitude of disdain towards them.
