From the Qur'an:

"And [mention] when Jesus, the son of Mary, said, "O children of Israel, indeed I am the messenger of Allah to you confirming what came before me of the Torah and bringing good tidings of a messenger to come after me, whose name is Ahmad." But when he came to them with clear evidences, they said, "This is obvious magic."

"And who is more unjust than one who invents about Allah untruth while he is being invited to Islam. And Allah does not guide the wrongdoing people."

"They want to extinguish the light of Allah with their mouths, but Allah will perfect His light, although the disbelievers dislike it."

"It is He who sent His Messenger with guidance and the religion of truth to manifest it over all religion, although those who associate others with Allah dislike it."
(Surah As-Saf, Verses 6 - 9)

Selected Hadith:

Zainab bint Jahsh (RA) reported that the Holy Prophet (SAAW) got up from sleep saying: There is no god but Allah; there is a destruction in store for Arabia because of turmoil which is at hand, the barrier of Gog and Magog has opened so much. [And Sufyan made a sign of ten with the help of his hand (in order to indicate the width of the gap)] and I said: Allah's Messenger, would we be perished in spite of the fact that there would be good people amongst us? Thereupon he said: Of course, but only when the evil predominates. (Sahih Muslim)

All praise is due to Allah (SWT), and peace & blessing on his noble Messengers (AS), in particular, on the last of them all the blessed Prophet Muhammad (SAAW).

Let us state for the record from the very onset that, in truth, the Zionist lobby (Israel being at the center thereof) around the world has been at the core of all the dominant geopolitical and military dynamics that are occurring in the world today. That is the 'invisible hand', so to speak.

To the naked eye, however, if we step back from the details of daily headlines around the world and try to make sense of larger patterns, the dominant dynamic defining world geopolitics in the past three years or more is the appearance of a genuine irregular conflict between the two most formidable powers on the planet — The Peoples' Republic of China and the United States of America. Increasingly it's beginning to look as if some very dark global networks are orchestrating what looks to be an updated rerun of their 1939-1945 World War. The powers that be periodically use war to gain major policy shifts.

On behalf of the Powers That Be (PTB), World War II was orchestrated by the circles of the City of London and of Wall Street to maneuver two great obstacles — Russia and Germany — to wage a war to the death against each other, in order that those Anglo-Saxon PTB could reorganize the world geopolitical chess board to their advantage. It largely succeeded, but for the small detail that after 1945, Wall Street and the Rockefeller brothers were determined that England play the junior partner to Washington. London and Washington then entered the period of their global domination known as the Cold War.

For the PTB, who owe no allegiance to nations, only to their power which is across borders, the birth of the World Trade Organization and their bringing China in as a full member in 2001 was intended as the key next step. At that point the PTB facilitated in China the greatest industrial growth by any nation in history, possibly excepting Germany from 1871-1914 and USA after 1866. WTO membership allowed Western multinationals from Apple to Nike to KFC to Ford and VW to pour billions into China to make their products at dirt-cheap wage levels for re-export to the West.

One of the great mysteries of that China growth is the fact that China was allowed to become the "workshop of the world" after 2001, first in lower-skill industries such as textiles or toys, later in pharmaceuticals and most recently in electronics assembly and production. The mystery clears up when we look at the idea that the PTB and their financial houses, using China, want to weaken strong industrial powers, especially the United States, to push their global agenda. Brzezinski often wrote that the nation state was to be eliminated, as did his patron, David Rockefeller. By allowing China to become a rival to Washington in economy and increasingly in technology, they created the means to destroy the superpower hegemony of the US.

By the onset of the Presidency of Xi Jinping in 2012, China was an economic colossus second in weight only to the United States. Clearly this could never have happened – not under the eye of the same Anglo-American old families who launched the Opium Wars after 1840 to bring China to heel and open their economy to Western financial looting – unless the Anglo-Americans had wanted it.

The same British-owned bank involved in the China opium trade, Hong Kong and Shanghai Bank (HSBC), founded by a Scotsman, Thomas Sutherland in 1865 in the then-British colony of Hong Kong, today is the largest non-Chinese bank in Hong Kong. HSBC has become so well-connected to China in recent years that it has since 2011 had as Board member and Deputy HSBC Chairman, Laura Cha. Cha was formerly Vice Chairman of the China Securities Regulatory Commission, being the first person outside mainland China to join the Beijing Central Government of the People's Republic of China at vice-ministerial rank. In other words the largest bank in the UK has a board member who was a member of the Chinese Communist Party and a China government official. China needed access to Western money and HSBC and other select banks such as JP Morgan Chase, Barclays, Goldman Sachs were clearly more than happy to assist.

All told until 2012 when Xi took charge of the CCP in Beijing, China seemed to be willing to be a globalist "team player," though with "Chinese characteristics." However, in 2015 after little more than two years in office, Xi Jinping endorsed a comprehensive national industrial strategy, Made in China: 2025. China 2025 replaced an earlier Western globalist document that had been formulated with the World Bank and the USA, the China 2030 report under Robert Zoellick. That shift to a China strategy for global tech domination might well have triggered a decision by the globalist PTB that China could no longer be relied on to play by the rules of the globalists, but rather that the CCP under Xi were determined to make China the global leader in advanced industrial, AI and bio-technologies. A resurgent China nationalist global hegemony was not the idea of the New World Order gang.

China 2025 combined with Xi's strong advocacy of the Belt Road Initiative for global infrastructure linking China by land and sea to all Eurasia and beyond, likely suggested to the globalists that the only solution to the prospect of their losing their power to a China global hegemon would ultimately be war, a war that would destroy both nationalist powers, USA AND China.

Now after Washington closed the China Consulate in Houston and China the US Consulate in Chengdu, both sides have stepped up rhetoric. High tech companies are being banned in the US, military displays of force from the US in the South China Sea and waters near Taiwan are increasing tensions and rhetoric on both sides. The White House accuses the WHO of being an agent of Beijing, while China accuses the US of deliberately creating a deadly virus and bringing it to Wuhan. Chinese state media supports the explosion of violent protests across America under the banner of Black Lives Matter. Step-wise events are escalating dramatically. Many of the US self-styled Marxists leading the protests across US cities have ties to Beijing such as the Maoist-origin Revolutionary Communist Party, USA of Bob Avakian.

Under these conditions, what kind of escalation is likely? In 1999 two colonels in the China PLA, Qiao Liang and Wang Xiangsui, published a book with the PLA Press titled Unrestricted Warfare. Qiao Liang was promoted to Major General in the PLA Air Force and became deputy secretary-general of the Council for National Security Policy Studies. The two updated their work in 2016. It gives a window on high-level China military strategy.

Reviewing published US military doctrine in the aftermath of the 1991 US Operation Desert Storm war against Iraq, the Chinese authors point out what they see as US over-dependence on brute military force and conventional military doctrine. They claim, "Observing, considering, and resolving problems from the point of view of technology is typical American thinking. Its advantages and disadvantages are both very apparent, just like the characters of Americans." They add, "military threats are already often no longer the major factors affecting national security...these traditional factors are increasingly becoming more intertwined with grabbing resources, contending for markets, controlling capital, trade sanctions, and other economic factors, to the extent that they are even becoming secondary to these factors. They comprise a new pattern which threatens the political, economic and military security of a nation or nations... The two authors define the new form of warfare as, "encompassing the political, economic, diplomatic, cultural, and psychological spheres, in addition to the land, sea, air, space, and electronics spheres."

They suggest China could use hacking into websites, targeting financial institutions, terrorism, using the media, and conducting urban warfare among the methods proposed. Recent revelations that Chinese entities pay millions in ad revenues to the New York Times and other mainstream USA media to voice China-positive views is one example. Similarly, maneuvering a Chinese national to head the US' largest public pension fund, CalPERS, which poured billions into risky China stocks, or persuading the New York Stock Exchange to list dozens of China companies without requiring adherence to US accounting transparency increase US financial vulnerability are others.

This all suggests the form that a war between China and the US could take. It can be termed asymmetrical warfare or unrestricted war, where nothing that disrupts the enemy is off limits. Qiao has that, "the first rule of unrestricted warfare is that there are no rules, with nothing forbidden." There are no Geneva Conventions. A full unrestricted war of China and the USA would be more than a tragedy. Is this what characters such as Bill Gates and his superiors are trying to bring about? Do they plan to introduce their draconian dystopian "Reset" on the ashes of such a conflict?

Given the context, it is necessary for Pakistan to strengthen its ideological basis – its raison d'être – in order to fortify its position and be eligible for the succor of Allah (SWT) to save it from the intrigues stated above. The question before us is extremely simple. What is required of us as citizens of Pakistan? The answer too is equally simple. We are required to put our best efforts in endeavoring to transform our homeland into a genuine Islamic Welfare State based on the principles of Islamic Social Justice as enunciated in the Qur'an and the Sunnah, and practiced during the Khilafat-e-Rashida. It is efforts made in that direction only which can be of any benefit to us in this world and in the Hereafter.

Signing off...

Lahore (PR): “The recognition of Israel by the Arabs will lead to further divisions among the Muslim Ummah.”

This was said by the Ameer of Tanzeem-e-Islami, Shujauddin Shaikh, in a statement. He noted that the Muslim Ummah was already divided to some degree on a ‘religious basis’ due to the tensions between Iran and Saudi Arabia, however, if the Arabs recognize Israel, then the unfortunate continuous process of division upon division among the Muslim Ummah will start, happening this time on the basis of being ‘Arabic’ (Arabs) and ‘Ajami’ (non-Arabs), and consequently the dream of uniting and bonding the Muslim Ummah would not be realized. He said that the Noble Qur’an manifestly decrees the Muslims to hold firmly to the rope of Allah (SWT) and not become divided. The Messenger (SAAW) of Allah (SWT) had particularly commanded the Muslims on the occasion of his (SAAW) sermon of the Farewell Pilgrimage to cease the discrimination based on being ‘Arabic’ (Arabs) or ‘Ajami’ (non-Arabs), along with pearls of guidance on many other matters. The Ameer said that the fact of the matter is that the problems facing Muslims, on the individual as well as the collective levels, can only be eradicated by reverting to Allah (SWT) and His (SWT) Messenger (SAAW). The Ameer lamented with shock and grief that the Arabs are making ‘peace deals’ with the same Israel that is continuously martyring and spilling the blood of the Palestinian Muslims by constantly shelling Gaza. He remarked that the internal conflict and disagreements among Muslims is providing the opportunity to the enemies of Islam to spill the blood of Muslims with such impunity.

On the commencement of the Holy month of Muharram, the Ameer supplicated to Allah (SWT) that may the Islamic (Hijrah) year of 1442 (AH) be the year representative of unity and harmony among the Muslims around the globe. Aameen! He evoked that the great leader of the Muslims, Amir al-Mu’minin (Commander of the Faithful) Hazrat Umar Farooq (RA) was martyred on the first day of the month of Muharram. The fact of the matter is that even the West had to recognize the awe, ability and magnificence of Hazrat Umar (RA) by acknowledging that had there been another Umar (RA), there would have been no other religion on the face of the earth except Islam! The Ameer concluded by supplicating that may Allah (SWT) give the current leaders of the Muslim Ummah the sense and aptitude to emulate and follow in the footsteps of Hazrat Umar (RA) – a Khalifah (Caliph) of the highest esteem, eminence and exceptional merits – so that the Muslims of today could achieve success both in this world and in the Hereafter. Aameen!

Lahore (PR): “When would the Ideology of Pakistan be practically implemented in our country?”

This was said by the Ameer of Tanzeem-e-Islami, Shujauddin Shaikh, in his message to the nation on the Independence Day of Pakistan. The Ameer remarked it has been seventy-three (73) years since the creation of the God-Given State of Pakistan, yet not only has Pakistan been unable to reach its destination, the nation has failed miserably in determining its true destination in the first place. This has happened despite the fact that the Muslims of the subcontinent gave momentous sacrifices of life and wealth in order to acquire this land, so that the Muslims could spend their lives according to the pristine ‘Just Islamic System’ of Islam. They had to fight an extensive and long battle against the ruling colonial British Empire and the bigoted Hindus in order to achieve that. An enormous number of Muslims migrated from the Indian part of the subcontinent to Pakistan and tolerated the plights and distresses of all kinds during that exodus solely for the reason of leaving a ‘Dar-ul-Kufr’ (Land of infidel domination) to reach a ‘Dar-ul-Islam’ (Land of Islamic domination).

The Ameer noted that in the beginning, the correct direction of the nascent state was also ascertained by the passing of the Objectives Resolution. Moreover, 31 eminent religious scholars of all religious schools of thought agreed upon 22 points for the establishment of Islam in the country and presented in no unclear terms a roadmap to the government for making the country a genuine Islamic State. However, after the martyrdom of the first Prime Minister, Liaquat Ali Khan, everything went into a reverse gear. Today we are faced with the situation that the Western-minded and influenced liberal sections of our nation adamantly and vociferously deny the very fact that Pakistan was created for establishing the Islamic System in the country. They fabricate many false elucidations and incorrect explanations of the speech made by the Quaid-e-Azam on 11 August 1947 to falsely support their baseless claim for a secular system in Pakistan, despite the fact that while addressing the Karachi Bar Association on 25 January 1948, the Quaid-e-Azam had clearly called such elements ‘mischievous’ who were declaring that the Shariat-e-Muhammadi (SAAW) would not be established in Pakistan.

The Ameer noted that it is imperative for the nation to renew its true vows and practically prove that the destiny of Pakistan is linked with Islam alone. He cautioned that those elements who are against moulding Pakistan into a genuine Islamic State are, deliberately or unintentionally, trying to undermine and terminate the very raison d’être for the creation of Pakistan. Therefore, the Ameer said, that it is not just the national but also the Deeni (religious) obligation of every Muslim to participate in the struggle for the establishment of such an Islamic System in Pakistan that is as close of a reflection as possible to the Khilafat-e-Rashida (The Rightly-Guided Caliphate). The Ameer concluded by stating that the fact of the matter is that the success of the Muslims of Pakistan, in this world and in the Hereafter, resides only in establishing the genuine Islamic System of Collective Justice and Welfare in the country.

Press Releases issued by Tanzeem-e-Islami*Date: 29 August 2020*Lahore (PR): “The tragedy of Karbala was an incident of great anguish for the Muslim Ummah.”

This was said by the Ameer of Tanzeem-e-Islami, Shujauddin Shaikh, while delivering his Khitab-e-Jumu'ah. He noted that the grandson (RA) of the Holy Prophet (SAAW) sacrificed his (RA) own life and that of his (RA) family when an undesirable crack appeared in the political system of Islam. His (RA) religious (Deeni) dignity and lofty poise did not allow him (RA) to reconcile with the fact that the system of Khilafah had been replaced by the system of imperialism. Today the political, economic, social and cultural dimensions of Islam have been razed to the ground in Pakistan – a country created on the basis of Islam – yet the Muslims of our country have been totally indifferent to that seismic shift in ideology. The fundamental reason for the disgrace and ignominy of Muslims today is that we have abandoned the system decreed for us by the Qur'an and Sunnah – the System of Khilafah – and shamelessly replaced it by establishing the system imported from the modern Western civilization in Pakistan. We ought to be steadfast in repugnance to the falsehood and perform the obligation of proclaiming the Truth (Fariza-e-Shahadat-e-Haq) as demonstrated by the grandson (RA) of the Holy Prophet (SAAW), Hazrat Hussain (RA), for which he (RA) was martyred in the way of Allah (SWT).

Date: 28 August 2020Lahore (PR): “Assisting those affected by torrential rain and flood is not only our national but also our religious obligation.”

This was said by the Ameer of Tanzeem-e-Islami, Shujauddin Shaikh, in a statement. He said that although torrential rain is a portent of Divine affliction/wrath and the loss of life and property during such times cannot be totally eliminated, yet such losses could have been reduced as much as humanly possible through good governance and disaster management. While referring, in particular, to the heavy damages sustained in Karachi, he noted that had the water canals and conduits been cleaned regularly and promptly, and had the corrupt elements among the ruling elite not allowed encroachments and illegal constructions, the poor masses would not have had to face this appalling situation. The local, provincial and federal governments ought to take such steps immediately that ensure that the masses do not fall prey to the dreadful impact of similar natural disasters in the future. This must be done regardless of the extent of 'political capital' lost by the ruling elite and they must care for the collective benefit of all peoples (the masses), instead of just their own voters and vote bank.

While commenting on the visit by a delegation of the Afghan Taliban to Pakistan, the Ameer remarked that, with the benevolence and succor of Allah (SWT), the Afghan Taliban have won the war against USA in the battlefield, which has forced America to negotiate a peace deal with the Afghan Taliban. Pakistan ought not to put pressure on the Afghan Taliban to accept any illicit demand of USA or the current Afghan administration, now. The Kabul regime must release all prisoners, as agreed in the USA-Afghan Taliban deal, so that the path for an Intra-Afghan Dialogue is paved in order to achieve lasting peace and stability in Afghanistan. The Ameer concluded by warning that if the US does not stop its intrigues and keeps causing hurdles in the path of peace in Afghanistan, then the consequences would be devastating and extremely destructive for both the US and the puppet Afghan regime, and the longing for peace in Afghanistan would not be realized, because without the establishment of a genuine and pure Islamic Government in Afghanistan the ultimate goal of the Afghan Taliban would not have been achieved for which they will keep striving to their utmost.
